

Land Acknowledgement

We begin this meeting/event by acknowledging that we are meeting on land that has been inhabited by Indigenous peoples from the beginning. SGEU acknowledges Saskatchewan as the traditional territory of First Nations and Métis people, which includes Treaties 2,4,5,6,8, and 10. We have come together today on Treaty 4 territory, which is the traditional territory of the Nehiyaw/Cree, Saulteaux, Dakota, Lakota, Nakota and formerly Blackfoot.

We are grateful for the opportunity to meet here, and we thank all generations of people who have taken care of this land for thousands of years. We recognize and deeply appreciate their historic connection to these lands. We also recognize the contributions of Métis, Inuit, and other Indigenous peoples, both in shaping and strengthening in these communities, our province, and country as a whole.
